

Welcome

to the June edition of the FAME newsletter. This month, we have some great new developments to update you on, as well as some great feedback from those already using FAME.

Last call for the FAME User Reference Group

This month the FAME User Reference Group will be held in London, to preview the newly developed FAME toolkit.

Learn More

FAME supporting the work of the Cabinet Committee on Information Sharing

FAME has been getting involved in supporting central government through the difficulties of information sharing at a high level.

Learn More

FAME to be evaluated by The World Organisation of Family Doctors

FAME has begun working to support The World of family Doctors.

Learn More

This is FAME talking

Last month Rob Wilson was invited to speak on FAME at Public Sector Forum's recent event on sharing and managing information.

Learn More

FAME spreading

Having received great feedback from local authorities and other organisations using FAME, we have now made a series of these case studies available on our website

Learn More